Sunday AM/14

Fees and Registration

Conference registration is $65 ($35 for students with current ID) and covers materials, transportation between hotel and conference center, continental breakfast Friday and Saturday, refreshments, and incidentals. After October 1, there will be a $10 late fee. All registrants also pay a colloquia fee ($2 faculty, $1 graduate) which enables the National NCFS Colloquia Committee to meet its expenses. The Conference Center is NOT within walking distance of restaurants; lunches will be provided on Friday ($12.95) and Saturday ($9.50). The Saturday evening banquet is $30. Early registration is advised. Registration will be held at the Holiday Inn on Thursday (11:00-5:00) and at Arsh Hall on Friday (8:00-5:00) and Saturday (8:00-12:00). There will be a book display prepared by The Scholar's Choice at Arsh Hall.

Refunds

A full refund of registration fees will be made if requested in writing and postmarked by October 8th. There will be a $25 administrative fee for requests made after this date. No refunds will be made after October 15th.

Location

Thursday and Sunday sessions will be held at the Holiday Inn. An after-hours tour of the Hagley Museum and Gardens is scheduled for 5:30 p.m. on Thursday; transportation provided. Immediately following the tour, busses will take participants to a cash-bar reception at Brantwyn, a Georgian style manor home on the grounds of the DuPont Country Club. A latecomers bus will depart the Holiday Inn at 6:30 p.m. to take those who miss the tour directly to Brantwyn. Friday and Saturday sessions will be at Arsh Hall. Busses will be provided, but not continuously throughout the day. Public busses are also available. The Saturday evening banquet will be held in the ballroom of the Holiday Inn.

N.B. The University of Delaware's main campus is in Newark, 20 minutes by car to the south of Wilmington. Participants wishing to visit the campus should consider renting a car, as none of the conference events is scheduled to take place in Newark.

A Word about Hagley

Located along the fast-flowing Brandywine River on the site of the first du Pont black powder works, Hagley provides a unique glimpse into nineteenth-century American life. Among the many exhibits is a diorama that dramatizes the role of the du Pont de Nemours family in the French Revolution and their subsequent emigration from France. This is where Wilmington's post-Colonial industrialization took hold and the du Pont family fortune took off. The spectacular scenery includes a nineteenth-century formal garden created by E. I. du Pont, an avid botanist.

Getting to Wilmington

By plane: The closest commercial airport is Philadelphia International, a 30-minute drive from Wilmington. Limousine service to the hotel via "SuperShuttle" is available at a special conference rate of $17 each way. To take SuperShuttle, proceed to the baggage claim area and dial 43 on the courtesy phone at the Ground Transportation Counter. Tell the agent which terminal you are in and your destination. Remain in the seating area near the Ground Transportation Counter until your name is called. For your return trip, call 1-800-246-0770 at least 24 hours in advance. Reservations are required for the return trip.

By train: The Wilmington train station provides regular Amtrak and Metroliner service. If you are arriving by train, specify your arrival time when making reservations and arrange for the hotel van to pick you up. There is no charge for this shuttle.

By car: From points north and south, take I-95; Exit 7 (if coming from south), 7A (if coming from North). This is Delaware Avenue; head toward the center of town (south) on Delaware Ave, bearing left where Delaware Ave. joins 11th Street. Continue to King Street, turn right on King. Hotel is 3 blocks down, on the left.

Accommodations

A block of rooms has been reserved at the Holiday Inn Downtown, Wilmington, DE. Unless you have your own transportation, you are advised to stay at this hotel, as busses will not make multiple stops. The rate for NCFS participants is $78 + 8% room tax, single or double. You are responsible for making your own reservations.

Specify that you are attending the conference to receive the special rate. The rooms will be held until September 18 only, so make your reservations early to receive the discount.
